98TH YEAR.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1905.

PRICE In St. Louis, One Cent.

Two Parts in To-Bev's

Useful Christmas Gifts; Hints for the Household

THANKSGIVING MARKETS → AND DINNER RECIPES. K

§Nielsen Concert at Odeon News of the Playhouses

ATTRACTIVE CHILDREN-NO. 12

-Strauss Portrait. MORGAN C Son of Robert C. Day, No. 374 Walton avenue,

THANKSGIVING DINNER MEACS.

divine states. Cranberry moveleast turkey with oysier or giblet stuffing.
Creamed onions.

PHILLS," YET PURELY AMERICAN.

Oyster cocktalls.

Homemade mints. Clear soup, with bread eticks.

Boman nunch.

Brotled quali or squabs on fried mush,

Lettuce and radish salad.

Bonbone fruit, nuts, raisins,

Loving cup.

infined Shirt Waist.

wards of thirty-six-inch material.

Thanksgiving Desserts.

you choose, as they are really an improve-

Professional Amenities

Doctor Fleshly: "Can't discover what's Roquefort choese. Wafe Mince ple. Pumpkin ple.

White potato croqueres. wer au gratin. Eaked squash.

California olives,

Cauliflower au gratin

Hubbard squash.

Mince pie. Homemade candles.

Salted muta

HOUSEHOLD CORNER

"Lets rummage anyhow, was hubby's re-Dly.

A young couple who life in a South-Side flat returned late one evening recently and discovered, after they reached home, that both were hungry.

"I wish we could dig up a nice salad," said the young man So do I, but there's hardly a thing in the house," mid his wife. "Let's rummage, anyhow," was hubby's reply, as he turned on the light in the

"Here's a Spanish onton," exclaimed wifey, after a few minutes' search.

Tve found some Swiss cheese," de-

"And here's a bottle of stuffed olives." cried the wife. "We've got enough for a lunch, if we can't have a salad." "Wait a minute got any oil?" asked the man. "I'll make you a salad out of these

Wait and sea," was the reply, as hubby began to cut up the cheese and the onlen, while wifey fished the olives out with her hatpin. They were almost afraid to tr vine Particularly recommended to complete a mixture after it was ready, but it looked, shirt-walst suit of velvereen, is made like so good when the nice French dreasing was poured over it, and they were so hun- and three-fourths yards of twenty-sevengry they concluded to take a chance.

"Great!" exclaimed hubby "Fine!" cried wifey simultaneously. They emptied the dish and slept better than ever before, and now each is brug-

NEW RECIPES.

ging of the new mind they invented

Mecuits may be cut open on one side, the crumb dug out and the cavity filled with minced and seasoned chicken turkey, ham or tongue. Close the roll and | Flavor, put into a small pull or mold, that of audiences in Old World cities with

POTATO NESTS -Scrub white potatoes clean, dry, pare and cut into very thin straws; do not wet; line a potuto nest fryer so as to resemble a bird's nest, place the smaller fryer n this and fry a delicate brown in deep smoking hot fat; remove center fryer; tap bottom one ightly; and the nest will slip out; drain on brown paper, dust with sait, fill with potato balls, boiled, and reasoned. The seets must be hot when served

To Keep Lemon Julee.

To keep lemon juice ready for use, equeese out the juice in the usual manner. strain free from pulp and pits, add white powdered sugar in the proportion of one pound to a pint of juice, stir it until the sugar is quite dissolved, then put it away in a very small bottle. Put a teaspecaful of salad oil in the top and cork it cause. When wanted for use

MISS ALICE NIELSEN'S REAPPEARANCE AFTER A LONG SEASON OF STUDY

The Apollo Club never did a better thing than it did in signing a contract her earlier successes in American comic

Then, which is perhaps more important, she has all of the wonderfully honest voice quality that made for her triumph ficulty last night. Her accompanist in some way lost his music and was unable to play without it. Henry Russell of London, who has long been interested in Miss Nielsen's voice, volunteered, upon request of Manager Samuel Kingston, to appear at the plane, playing entirely from memory. Miss Nielsen rang an aria from "Rigo-letto," one from "La Traviata." Tosti's "Good-by," "Gomin' Through the Rye" and "Annie Laurie."

"I really don't know how I got through," said Mr. Russell, as Miss Nielsen thanked and congratulated him. "You know I never appear in public, and on my word of honor I don't think I ever before played a note for some of the things Miss Nielsen

Nielsen got along beautifully. Miss Nielsen's singing of the "Caro Nome" and "A Fors e Lui" arias were bravura pieces that rather served to tell of the training she has had and vocal capacity that has advanced her to a first position among sopranos. In amiably responding to recalls wise Patti-like thing, giving to her audince English songs of the heart kind.

The voice that found its fame even back in Kansas City days of choir work is a better voice now than ever. It has that clarity that is ever the prayer and search of the impressaril, along with bigness of rone, sureness and sympathy. Note Miss Nielsen has only begun her tourer. With good luck as to health she will, with this great voice and her GOOD OLD PASSITIONED HOME THANKSown sympathetic way of knowing what place that has not been quite filled since Patti left us with that pathetic little shadow of the old "Comin' Through the Rye" she used to sing year in and year

A THANKSGIVING DINNER WITH SOME score men and women had started to leave the theater, but they came back and stood between the curtains while the old song came out to them. Miss Nielsen probably knows what she is about.

Mr. Wright is authority for the state-Roast turkey, chestnut dressing. Cranberry same. • Browned sweet potatoes. ment that last night's audience was the best to which Apollo has ever sung. Certain it is, that the chorus under Mr. Lieber is a fine, voiceful body that shows its in-

Mr. Kronold a new 'cellist, played that instrument of the human voice with autherity. Chiefly interesting was his delicate rendering of the always appealing "Traumerel," following with a small group, in which there were wide ranges in the exhibition of his skill.

Mies Nielsen will return to St. Louis within a few weeks, accompanied by the small group of tlalian singers who are engaged with her in doing Donizetti's "Don vacious, spent a pleasant afternoon yesterday renewing her acquaintance with St. Louis scenes, after a five years' absence. Although but a comparatively water in rale bisque creps and lace, brief time since her last visit to this city. her afternoon drive was full of interest. Nielsen. "For, you know, I am of the Nielsen. "For, you know, I am of the West, and to it I owe much of what I Mr. Lesis Werner entertained Mr. and Mrs. have accomplished. I can never forget. Charles McLure Clark. Moss Southle visua and either, what part St. Louis has played Miss Leckland in his box. In its Inspirational effect upon me. You | Mrs. William H. Scudder had with her in the

them in Victor Herbert's 'Serenade.' " And the little singer with the great In the Syron Nogent box were Mr. and Nogent voice, as she spoke of the days when she or winter-weight cotton materials, and

"But, pleasant as the work was, I felt was in black lare. the Elustration. Size 56 will require three inch material or three and one-fourth erations, to forsake comic opera for the Nice Claims Kerens never regretted ft. I realize that my five The miles pie, which by no means may years of study in Europe, under the train- and Mes Hodge who were made. Mrs Van are you, my little sweetheart." be emitted, may be slightly heated, and ing of my music master. Henry Russell, then sent blazing to the table by pouring have been of value to me, and a proper a little brandy over and lighting. This is return to my public for all the apprecia-

better than putting liquor into the pick tion they have shown to my work "The attitude of an American audience easy one. Hall a cup of sugar with a cup toward a singer might easily be misunder. Miss Hazel Garrison and William Arthur Wil-THE QUEEN'S ROLLS -Oval rolls or of water till it threads, then beat it glow- stood by one unfamiliar with them. While In into the stiff whites of three eggs, and they are generous in their appliance, apwhen cold fold this into a pint of whipped | preclative to a degree of music and possessed of a fudgment which is equal to in small glasses. A few macaroons they are dignified in their treatment of crumbed into powder may be put in if any public entertainer "In this they are much like Italian audiences. If they are pleased and realize that the singer has given to them the very best of her art they are liberal and hearty in their applause. If, on the conthey feel that an artiste has not merited their appreciation, has not given merited their appreciation, has not given. Mrs. Arthur Lieber, in pale blue: Mr. and Saturday, November 18, them all that her art is capable of, or in Mrs. Edward L. Porteous, Doctor and Mrs. She was standing in any way fails to call forth their praise, Julius Ehrhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sawyer, they simply preserve a dignified ellence. To the credit of an American audience let it be said that they never him."

BRILLIANT AUDIENCE AT APOLLO CONCERT.

The Apollo Club's first season audience was the usual brilliant one Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tilton had parquet mate.

Myra Opel with them. Miss Opel wire rose Mrs. Edward P. Macy and Mrs. P. De C. Mrs. Thomas O'Rellly's box guests were Mr.

and Mrs. Alexander Douglas, Miss Walker and Miss Hazel Garrison

Mr. and Mrs. C. McLure Cark were in a per, 12% cents box; Mrs. Clark in black satin and Irish point. her people want, take the big American seats; Mrs. Fowler in gray, with builtant caral

Busch were in their box. Miss Busch wearing 2 cents a head; California tomatocs, 4 for Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Simmons were in the parquet, near Mr. and Mrs. Wim Leftwich. Southern head lettuce. 10 cents a head; Miss Nielsen sang it last night-a great. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kineger were in the chickory, 5 cents a head; Bell peppers. Opera-house at the time, and Mrs. Geor-fine song she made of it; and then she parquet; Mrs. Kroeger in gray crete and gray 30 cents a dozen; Michigan dwarf celery, gla Drew Barrymore was the leading > both Garth, who were a colorray cross and late.

>
> Mr. and Mrs. George King-hury Busch were
>
> Ocents a quart; string beans, 10 cents a lew Harper, now of the Southern, called the string beans, 10 cents a quart; him to the desk. "Come here and see early; Mrs. Busch wearing old-rore messaline pale-blue chiffren and lace,

Mr. and Mrs. Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. Ripley D. Saunders and Mr. and Mrs. Cytus Blanke were all in the fover early. Miss Adele Gebuer, in pule blue, and Miss Pricameyer, in lavender, were with friends. Mrs. Stiegers wearing pale-blue embronder-d

Professor Emil Karst and Miss Emilie Karst | a basket. were in the parquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Otiver Garrison Jr. ant with friends, Mrs. Carrison in puls gray gaune Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark Sr. recorded

Alice Nielsen, petite, dainty and vi- their box with friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Christian Kenney had a purry with them. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Douglass had their season seats. Mrs. Douglas to gray.

she found much that showed change, and Claude Kilputrick and the Misses Fiste and Less Kilpatrich, with several men. Mrs. Kil-"But still, it was like home," said Miss Patrick was in lavender satin point lare; Miss Elete in him radium and Miss Lets in pink know it was practically in this city that Copples box Miss Martin Souther, in white I made my debut as a singer, and to this satin, puffel as to the slowers, and the bedice day it is very pleasant for me to think of lace; Mess Hermine Gratz and their escortaof the reception I received from public Mr. and Mrs. Clark Street had the Rolla and press when I first made myself known | Wells box, with Miss Julia Knopp and Miss Mary Randolph as her guests.

In the Syron Nugent box were Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lawnin had Mr. and first sang her way into the hearts of St. Mrs. Joseph P. Whyte in their her. Mrs. Law Newman there, and, she said, he followed Louis audiences, seemed to feel the senti- nin were a handsome robe of real Irish lace bore it, regardless of all financial consid- Kerens, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Korens and higher field of concert singing. I have

Mrs. Vas Biarren had a bes party of indice. thing to him. When I came out the man never regretted it. I realize that my five.

Mrs. J L D Moretum, in bayender cope and was still waiting for me." Mrs. Weldon. Mrs. Van Blatters had a box party of tadler Blarcom was in pink broads.

Mr and Mrs. David Blabs secupled the W.

Dishe has with guests Me and Mrs Mc de were in their party. Mr. and Mrs. Chence Rosesso's supers were

In Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morris's box Miss Now Learned That President's Daugh-Grace Moon entertained a party. Miss Crouch being among her goests. Miss Moon wore a princess gown of blue and effver. and Mrs. Joseph D. Bascom, Mr. and bind H with narrow ribbon, tied with a pack in ice and salt five hours, and serve centuries of vaunted culture behind them. Mrs Duncan Meller, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Falion Delamey formed one box party.

> the Steer but Mr. and Mrs. Goodman King had year parquet seats. Mrs. King were pass gray creps de Chine, hand souhneldered, gray tulle and guinupe of point applique. In the audience were:

John Leaby, Mr. and Mrs. Will Steer were in

Miss Ada Birge, Miss Adeje Gebner, Miss Har-First Fuwler, in stream crops, point lace and pearls, Mrs. Arthur Garnetson, Mr. and Mrs. Prank Hunkins, Captain J. J. Cokery, Mr. and frs. Clinton Elder, Doctor and Mrs. Wallace Harker, Miss Mary Francis Borce, in while repe and a black tare showt. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Healer, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chiefeer, sat with Mr. Sam Dold in his box, with Mrs. Joseph Gerardt. Mr. and Mrs. Offiver Green, Mr. Tom Murphy and Miss Cora Sippy. Miss Buth Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. John J. take out the cork carefully and take up the matter with old Bangs. Still, he keeps taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The core of the sold with a bit of cotton wool and the sold by "Must be a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in The sold with a bit of cotton wool are sold with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool. To use taking toy medicine.

The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in
The sold with a bit of cotton wool and with a case of in The sold with a case of in

MARKETS WILL BE BUSIEST TO-DAY

Housewives May Buy Thanksgiving Dinner Cheaper Than Expected.

TURKEYS 17 CENTS A POUND

Very Little Game in the Market -Plenty of Green Vegetables -No Change in Butter and Cheese.

The market will be the busiest place in prepared their menu and will go a-mar-

Their Thanksgiving dinner, will be cheaper than they expected, because turkeys did not take the threatened jump-in price. Fine corn-fed fowls are selling for 17 cents a pound, the price for the last geese, 1215 cents; spring frying chickens, 12 cents a pound; late summer fryers, 15 cents a pound, and hens 12 cents a pound. Cranberries-Fine large Wisconsin fruit are 15 cents a quart, and pumpkins 10 to 25 cents each There is but little game in the market Possum, the large one, $1.25 each; small, 75 cents each; rabbit, 5 cents each; squabs. S a dozen.

Shrimp are 35 cents a quart, live lobster 25 cents a nound; French snalls, 5 cents each; oysters. 25 cents a quart; New York, counts, 45 cents a quart; clams, 40 a quart; blue points, 15 cents a dozen; Rockaways. 25 cents a dozen; little neck clams, 20 cents

Pompano, 30 cents a pound; black bass, Spanish mackerel and hallbut, 20 cents; were pale-bue chiffen Jumbo smelts, large crapple, lake trout and Finan haddle, 15 cents, and red snap-

Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler occupied parquet supplies shipped from the North and South. Roston greenhouse cucumbers, 15 cents each: Long Island cauliflower, 10 to Southern head lettuce, 10 cents a head; World" company, playing at the Grand R. Park von Wedelstaed: brought Mrs. Eliza cents a stalk; wax beans, Texas-grown, eth Garth, who with a stalk was beans, Texas-grown, standing in the Lindell Hotel lobby when actors love to experiment quart; butter beans, 10 cents a quart; spinach, 15 cents a peck; watercress, 20 Georgia Drew's baby," he said; and the with inverts of black lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Udell, Mr. and Mrs. cents a half dozen; white cabbage, 5 to 15 cents a head; red cabbage, 10 to 25 cents Mrs. Edell were blue crepe and Mrs. Tamey a head; potatoes, 25 cents a peck; sweet

> Apples advance each week, but oranges are not as firm. The orange crop is larger this year than it has been for several years. Sweet navels are 50 cents a dozen: sweet Florida, 50 cents a dozen; tangerlines, 40 cents a dozen; grape fruit, $1.25 a

City and Miss Dillon were with featur Sasye. California Malaga grapes. 20 cents a Colored Tom Landows had in his box Mr. pound; Tokays, 19 cents a pound; Cor-Jackson Johnson, Mess Heiern Johnson and Mr. nishon, 15 cents a pound; Catawba grapes, 25 cents a basket; Colorado pears, 20 cents

> Butter and cheese are the same as last quotations: Rest Elein % cents a pound: country roll, 29 cents a pound. Cheese: Camembert is 29 to 35 cents; Roquefort, 50 cents; De Brie. 25 cents; Emmenthaler, 33 cents; New York cheddar, 30 to 20 cents; imburger, 15 cents. White clover honey is 20 cents a pound.

WOMAN CHARGES MAN WITH BEING A "MASHER."

Newman Denies Allegations, but Admits That He "Looked at Her Hard." Henry Newman's admiration for a woman resulted in his being locked up yesterday afternoon on a charge of "mach-He denies the allegation, but acowledged that he "looked at her hard." The arrest was made on the complaint receptions this week, but has been obliged of Mrs. Ida Weldon, No. 315 Montrose avenue. She told the police that she had stopped in a restaurant yesterday afterher out, passing her several times on the Pine streets, where my husband works." said Mrs. Weldon, "but did not say anysaid that once Newman said to her, "How ter Was Slightly Hurt on Torin After Vale-Harvard Game. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

MISS ROOSEVELT'S ILLNESS DUE TO INJURY TO SPINE.

Hartford, Conn., Nev. 28 -It is learned that Miss Alice Rossevelt, whose seclusion Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Steer, Mr. and Mrs. at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Cowles, in Farmington, was understood to have been caused merely by the need of a rest, met with an accident at New Haven while on her way to Farmington after the Yale-Harvard freshman football game, which she attended in Cambridge She was standing in a car when the joiting caused by the coupling of two cars threw her against a seat with sufficient force to cause a siight spinal injury. The members of the Cowles family have been very reticent about her condition and would make no public statement regard- miles away. ing it, other than to say that she was resting But as Miss Roosevelt, for a week after her arrival in Farmington, remained within doors and received no callers, there has been much solicitude among the townspeople regarding her condition. For a few days she was confined to her bed.

Fortunately, the injury is not a serious one, and Miss Roosevelt has practically recovered from its effects. During the last formers as it was to the audience. few days she has been able to be out of

DAINTY AND USEFUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS No. 1. A tailored stock of white linen and tie of taffets, with shaped ends. No. 2. Stock of allover embroidery beading. Valenciennes lace and ribbon or

No. 3 Stock of ribbon to be worn under turnover or lace collars. No. 4. Turnover Collar made of odd pieces of fine linen, fagoted with white linen floss. Cuffs can be made to match

BERNHARDT TO PLAY AT ODEON: MIDWEEK NEWS OF THEATERS.

Louis engagement at the Odeon, according to present plans. She is to appear at three evening performances and possibly Shuberts, who are directing Mme. Bernhardt's American tour, originally intendthe tragedienne's time is short, it is deemed best to give her the advantage of a larger auditorium. Her engagement of ten performances in Chicago is said to have earned $42,000.

Manager Robert Brower of "The Heir to the Hoorah" company saw Ethel Barrymore Sunday evening for the first time since she was a wee baby in arms. Mr. Brower was the stage manager of "The Opera-house at the time, and Mrs. Geornurse held the child up for inspection "She was a smiling little thing in a sea of laces and ribbons," says Mr. Brower, potatoes, 25 cents a peck; new carrots, 10 "and she waved her hands at us in a most friendly manner. Of course, she did not know what I was saving, but I told her that some day she would be as great an actress as her charming mother.

"I never dreamed that her face and name would be in thirty-two sheets on the billboards in opposition to a show of mine, but the day has come. When she came into the Century Theater Sunday night it was the first time I had clapped eyes by following the prima donna's concert on her since that day in the Lindell Hotel, | tour of America. Mme. Calve's greatest She has reached the apex of my fondest hopes, and I know now she is destined to place the names of Drew and Barrymore higher than even her talented ancestors had reached."

It is a "property" baby that they use in "The Helr to the Hoorah." Knowledge of the fact will relieve the feelings of many tender-hearted ladies who have headquarters. Papers were signed com-

Carrie Reynolds, who is very well known in St. Louis as a leading comedicane at resenting the International Syndicate. Delmar Garden, has succeeded Bina May in "The School Girl." Miss Reynolds was last in St. Louis with the Rogers Brothers. She will sing the title role in "The School Girl" at the Garrick next week.

. . . . Mise Barrymore has received a great many invitations to dinners, luncheons and Chicago. to decline them all.

Many persons have an idea that the actress has most of the days at her disposal, and that outside of the few hours given to performances she must depend upon books, drives and lounging about to occupy her time. As a matter of fact, there are few business men, or even laborers, who are working harder than this young woman. Her company played in Pittsburg last Saturday night and all day Sunday was pasced on the train. Monday opened a week of painstaking labor.

There are matinees Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. Every other afternoon charge against Newman is disturbing the in the week is devoted to rehearsals of her new play, which opens in New York in a few weeks, and similar rehearsals are cona week's tour of the interior towns of tions in Miss Barrymore's life.

> Guy Bates Post says that whatever sucwith" in the East is small in comparison. with the enthusiasm which has greeted lace work, and other applied arts. such plays in the West. "The Hefr to the Hoorah" has not been west of the Rockies, but Mr. Fost is eager for the St. Louis art. time when he can present Joe Lacy to his prototypes Mr. Post was the Steve of "The Virginian" cast when it was first played in Cheyenne. Business was suspended during the performance, even the saloons being closed. Cowboys came in on horseback from ranches fifty and a hundred was in the audience, and the villatny of the stage Trampas was softened in deference to his feelings. The actors were guests of the populace while there. Mr. Post has received a number of inquries about "The Heir to the Hoorah" Cheyenne, and he expects a duplicate of the former event, as strange to the per-member of a number of Roman Catholic social settlement organizations in Canadian and Eastern cities. She was one of the most enthusiastic promoters of the movement for the higher education of women under church auspices, and has a number of friends in this city whom she has met in connection with these sub-

Mise Nora O'Brien, who plays Mrs. Joe delay.

It takes Robert Eleson one hour and a quarter to "make up" for the part of Strongheart in the play of that name. which comes to the Century next week Mr. Edeson plays the part of a fullblooded, but educated Indian. The story of the play is the love of this Indian for a white girl, prominent in the social set of New York, the scenes being laid at Columbia University.

In "The American Lord." the comedy which William H. Crane will bring to the Olympic, he will be seen as an unaffected. actors love to experiment with varied characters and plays, the public generally succeeds in forcing them back into the lines of their original successes Since the firm of Robson and Crane dissolved. Crane's most decided hit was as "The Senator." His new play is about a candidate for Congress who lands in the English House of Lords instead of in the Capitol at Washington,

Mme. Calve will appear at the Odeon next Monday evening. Jules Massenet, the celebrated French musician, composer of "La Navarraise," "Le Cid" and "Nanon," is writing a new opera for her, which it is planned to produce in Paris immediatesuccess, next to her triumph in "Carmen,"

NEW VAUDEVILLE SYNDICATE IS FORMED FOR THE WEST.

has been in "La Navarraise."

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 28.-A large vaude ville theater syndicate has been formed, and St. Paul and Minneapolis may be its wasted much sympathy on "the little pleting the deal in Minneapolis. The dear" at the Century since the opening. Orpheum circuit secured the controlling in-> Celenel Rogers and Samuel Choen, renwere in St. Paul to-day, arranging for the completing of the erection of new houses in St. Paul.

The new vaudeville syndicate will be headed by the Orpheum circuit, owners Congressman Tim Sullivan, New York, and Senator O'Brien and John F. Ryan,

The new trust will, it is announced, control vaudeville in the West, Pacific Coast and Middle Western States.

BAZAAR FOR BENEIT OF STUDENT FUND.

Given by St. Louis School of Fine and Applied Arts-Many Works for Sale. The students of the St. Louis School of Fine and Applied Arts are holding a bazaar in the Artists' Guild rooms, in the Dolph building. It will close to-day. The purpose of the bazaar is to create a students' fund. The walls are hung with work of the lasting until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. The tables are filled with applied arts, all local artists, who wish to help the fund for sale. The prices range from 50 cents Pennsylvania. So it is easy to realize that members of the Artists' Guild before being

The exhibit includes paintings in oil and water colors, pantel, black and white, pottery, banketware, posters, tooled leather, cess the drama of the plains has "met up hammered and etched brass and copper, photographs, etchings, Tiffany bronze,

Much of the work shows talent and close study, and gives great promise for

DIVINE SARAH STALLED TWICE

Two Engines Required to Get Her to Toronto.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Ottawa, Ontario, Nov. 28 -It took three locomotives to get the "Divine Surah" from Chicago to Toronto, on her way to Montreal.

Her special train left Chicago last night. Just west of London the engine b fown and the star had an hour to man at the scenery. Near Woodstock a second locomotive broke a piston rod and there was another hour's stop.

Mme. Bernhardt refused to see newspaper men and was not at all pleased at the